

Ian McGill

Qualifications: BSc LLB LLM

Non-executive Director (Non Academic) Sydney Institute of Marine Science

Nominated by the University of Sydney

Appointed director 7 August 2020

Non-executive Director SIMS Foundation Limited

Appointed director 17 August 2020

Experience

Ian McGill is a practising lawyer and company director. He was a partner of the law firm Allens until 30 June 2020, and is a former managing partner of Allen Allen & Hemsley and former senior executive partner integration and client services of Allens Arthur Robinson. His areas of legal specialisation are corporate governance, telecommunications and media regulation and technology contracts. Ian is actively involved in assisting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to achieve constitutional recognition, including a constitutionally anchored mechanism of providing First Nations peoples a voice to the Parliament. Ian is an experienced mentor, including mentoring chief executives in the not for profit sector through Kilfinan Australia. Ian was also the first graduate in marine science and law at UNSW in 1980.

Other roles

Ian is a director of Documentary Australia Foundation, a professional fellow in the Law School of the University of Technology, Sydney and a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.