

Peter Cochrane

Qualifications: BSc (ANU) MSc (ANU) Non-Executive Independent Director Appointed Director: 3 May 2019

Experience

Retiring from full-time employment with the Australian Government in 2013, Peter currently chairs the Steering Committee of Australia's National Environmental Science Program's Marine Biodiversity Hub, and the boards of the Australian Tropical Herbarium and the Blue Mountains World Heritage Institute. He is a director of Ecotourism Australia, Tangaroa Blue Foundation and Earthwatch Australia Institute. He chairs the Steering Group of the Protected Area Learning and Research Collaboration.

Peter was elected in 2016 as a member of the Council of the International Union for Conservation of Nature (IUCN) and has been appointed as the IUCN Council focal person on oceans and is a member of the IUCN Global Green List Committee.

Other Directorships

Non-Executive Director, Earthwatch Australia Institute. Non-Executive Director, Tangaroa Blue Foundation Non-Executive Director, Ecotourism Australia